

Looking into your future:

YOU control where you will go!

What would you like to accomplish and how will your life change as a result?

Think about where you would like to go and what you see yourself doing two years from now. Draw the image.

Think about what you see yourself doing five years from now. Write about what you see.

Think about what you see yourself doing in ten years. Draw the image.